Our Graduates

Ben Boonstra graduated from Eastern Christian High School. He will be leaving in August for Nebraska where he will be attending Creighton University to study physical therapy.

Jonathan Boonstra graduated from Bergen Community College this May, with an associate degree in Exercise Science. He is currently employed with Kuiken Brothers. He will be completing his schooling at Calvin College in Michigan in the fall. Jon enjoys fishing, golfing and playing ice hockey in his free time.

Luke Boonstra graduated from Delaware Valley University earning a degree in Livestock Science and Management. He was honored as a 4 year contributor to the football team. He earned 1st Team All-Conference recognition, also named Offensive Lineman of the Year for 2017, even though he played defense the prior 3 years. Luke is also certified in the Techniques of Artificial Insemination. He currently works at Abma's Farm and intends to pursue a job with Select Sires, an artificial insemination company or like company in the near future.

Tim Boonstra graduated from Montclair State University this past January with a degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Sports Events, Tourism and Marketing. He is currently employed part time with TGA, where he teaches golf after school to young students. He also assists in sporting events for the Prudential Center, Met Life Stadium and Rutgers University. Tim is also a volunteer firefighter for the town of Midland Park. In his spare time, Tim enjoys playing church softball, golfing and playing ice hockey for men's ice hockey league.

Kelly Bosloper graduated E.C. on June 14th. All four years of high school she ran cross country and track. She plans on attending Paul Smith's college in upper New York State.

Kendall Everett graduated from Calvin Theological Seminary in December with his Masters of Divinity. He has taken over Ken Vander Wall's position in Campus Ministry. He is the new "Pastor Ken". He has moved back from Michigan and is currently living in Vernon with his in-laws as he looks for housing in the area.

Our Graduates

Jarrett Kuipers graduated from Indian Hills High School on June 22, 2017. He played varsity football his sophomore and junior year. During his senior year he did the early work release program and worked for Douglas Everett Landscaping and Ultimate Air Conditioning. After graduation he will be working full time for Ultimate Air Conditioning, Wayne, NJ. He recently completed the boater's course and has become an avid fisherman. He plans to enter tournaments next spring. He also plays on the church softball team.

Heidi Lineweaver graduated Cum Laude from York College of Pennsylvania with a BA in Public Relations and Mass Communications. She also received three minors in marketing, speech communication and visual communication. She hopes to work in NYC for a public relations firm and also be involved with event planning.

Joseph McWilliams graduated 8th grade from Prospect Park School. He will be attending Manchester High School in the fall. Joe loves to read the Bible, pray and write. He's also an amazing artist and loves Sunday School.

Madison Noordeloos graduated from Hawthorne High School as an honors student with 12 Varsity letters in soccer, basketball, and softball. She will continue playing basketball at Stockton University, while pursuing a degree in Nursing.

Kelly Steenstra graduated as Salutatorian from Eastern Christian Middle School on June 15th. During 8th grade, Kelly enjoyed participating in soccer, volleyball, track and being a small group leader. Kelly will attend Eastern Christian High School in the fall.

Scott Steenstra graduated from Eastern Christian High School on June 14th. During his senior year, Scott enjoyed participating in the school drama and musical, playing on the golf team, leading chapel worship and co-leading a guy's Bible study group. Scott plans to attend Nyack College (NY) in the fall and major in Intercultural Studies.

Congratulations to all our graduates. May God bless you all as you continue your educations or move on into the work force.
